

Frequently Asked Questions

What is bulb?

bulb is a digital showcase and resume platform tailored to students, as well as educators and professionals. Users can create a dynamic portfolio, exhibit work, highlight skills and display certifications and achievements all in bulb.

Can students keep their bulb account and portfolio once they graduate, or change schools?

Students can keep their bulb portfolio- as is, without any need to export or download. Students simply can update their account to a personal email address.

Can bulb be used as a resume?

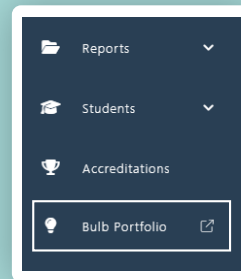

bulb includes a digital resume backed by a portfolio.

Can teachers easily access students' bulbs?

Yes, bulb has a class group feature that allows teachers to easily view their students' portfolios.

Can teachers access bulb?

Yes, educators get free access to bulb through the GMetrix partnership when student access is purchased. Teachers can set up and access their account through the GMetrix Admin Portal, by clicking on the bulb icon in the left-hand toolbar.

Access your free instructor account by clicking the  in manage.gmetrix.net

How much is bulb through GMetrix, and how can this be purchased?

bulb can be purchased for the price of $4.50 per student. Your Certiport Territory Manager can share additional information on pricing and set up enrollment.

Can bulb be accessed through GMetrix?

Yes! Students and educators can access bulb through their GMetrix platforms.

Does bulb work with LTI integrations?

bulb currently will work with Google Classroom, Canvas, Schoology, Blackboard, ItsLearning, and D2L.

What kind of files can be added in bulb?

bulb is a multimedia friendly platform that allows photos, videos, files, audio, presentations and more from anywhere including Google Drive and Microsoft One Drive. bulb supports over 1900 embedded content from Credly to Google Slides to Spark.

What are the storage limitations?

Each bulb account has unlimited storage. There is a 10 GB maximum for individual uploaded assets (files, videos, images).

Can bulb users choose who they share their portfolio with?

Yes, bulb's custom share settings, allows users to choose who can view each page with administrative controls.

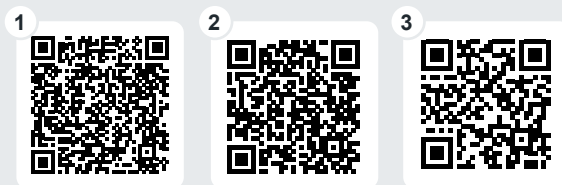

Does bulb have Single Sign-On options?

bulb can be accessed directly from the GMetrix platform, keeping student's learning products all in one place. bulb also works with Google and Microsoft single sign-on.

Where can I see examples of how bulb is being used?

There are so many great examples of bulb user success:

- 1 View a student's portfolio and resume.
- 2 Then hear from a student on how bulb made a difference - bulb for Student Internships.
- 3 More can be viewed at - my.bulbapp.com/k-12/.

Are there resources for educators?

Yes! bulb has a dedicated resource page - bulb Resource Library.

Is bulb compliant?

bulb is FERPA, COPPA, and GDPR compliant.

Give your students the jumpstart they need

Email sales@gmetrix.com or call 385-336-4784 for pricing and purchase details.

Powered by GMETRIX